

The Standing Stones

Stone: I have used Mountcharles Sandstone as a symbol for the evolution of Mountcharles from ancient times to the beginning of this new century. The stone of Mountcharles, like its people have been exported all over the world. Indeed much of it can be seen on many of Dublin's best public buildings.

Monuments: The idea of marking special places with stone has endured throughout the ages in Ireland and especially in Donegal. These standing stones are a reinterpretation of the idea of an enclosure of stones seen in stone circles or forts. The stones are clustered towards the centre and radiate outwards.
