

Rosemary McCarrow

Rosemary Mc Carrow, who is a native of Donegal studied Fine Art at Letterkenny Regional Technical College and National College of Art and Design Dublin. She finished her training with a Postgraduate from the Crawford College of Art in Cork. Since then she has been lecturing in Fine Art and Textile Design in the North West Institute in Derry. During this period Mc Carrow has been involved as a community artist in cross border projects through the Arts Council of Northern Ireland. Mc Carrow has exhibited in Donegal, Dublin, Belfast and New York and was also part of national touring exhibition of woven tapestry. Since finishing lecturing, Mc Carrow has been concentrating on her painting and weaving and now works on private commissions. Mc Carrow can be contacted on 074 9551039.