

Martin Henchion

Henchion-Reuter Architects is a collaboration of practices in Dublin and Berlin with a growing reputation for inventive design and careful attention to construction detail. The practice has accumulated substantial expertise in environmentally responsible design. Recent completed projects include the Youth and Community Centre at Donore Avenue, Dublin 8, the Community and Sports Centre, Cabra, Dublin 17 and Creche and Sheltered Housing at Jobstown, Dublin 24.

Recent competition successes include a footbridge linking Germany and Austria at Salsach, currently under construction as well as a zero-energy housing complex at Plochingen, Germany. A 78-unit aparthotel complex at Kiltarnan will be completed by the end of 2006. Projects in development include a 140 unit housing scheme at Cherry Orchard, Dublin as well as a Community Centre and Boxing Club at Dublin 24. The practice has won three AAI awards and four RIAI Regional Awards in recent years.
