

Walker and Walker

Joe Walker and Pat Walker were born in Dublin in 1962. They co-represented Ireland at the 51st Venice Biennale and have exhibited extensively both in Ireland and internationally. Recent solo exhibitions include the Royal Hibernian Academy, Dublin in 2004 and at Floating up, Manchester and Temple Bar Gallery and Studios in 2003. Group exhibitions include Time's Arrow at the Rotunda Gallery in New York 2005, Presence at Gimpel fils, London, 2005, Are we there yet in Glassbox, Paris, Do something at Floating up in 2004; Arranged Marriage Outer Space(s) at the Contemporary Arts Council, Chicago USA and How things turn out at the Irish Museum of Modern Art, Dublin all in 2002. They were commissioned by Donegal County Council to make a public artwork in 2001 and by Crumlin Children's Hospital in 2003. They have received several Arts Council of Ireland Awards including a Project Award for 2006.