

Mark Joyce

Biography of Mark Joyce for Map Wall Mark Joyce studied painting in National College of Art and Design, Dublin and at the Royal College of Art, London. He was awarded the Guinness Peat Aviation Emerging Irish Artists Award in 1990 and was recently awarded a Project Bursary from the Arts Council of Ireland to pursue research on the experience of colour. He will be artist in residence at the Albers Foundation in Bethany, New York in 2007. He has had Solo Exhibitions in Ireland, UK and the USA. His work is in the Public Collections of Irish Museum of Modern Art, the Arts Council, and the Office of Public Works